COOPER ANNOUNCES 2007 ACADEMY DAY TO BE HELD SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10 AT DOWNTOWN LIBRARY

Middle Tennessee youth invited to learn more about service academies

On Saturday, November 10, 2007, U.S. Congressman Jim Cooper will hold an information session for middle and high school students and their families who want to learn about educational opportunities at America's service academies.

Representatives from the U.S. Military Academy, U.S. Naval Academy, U.S. Air Force Academy, U.S. Coast Guard Academy, Merchant Marines, Tennessee National Guard, ROTC programs and U.S. State Department will be in attendance. Cooper's annual Academy Day presentation is designed to answer questions from prospective students and their families about educational opportunities available at one of the service academies, or through other service-related programs.

Registration begins at 9:30 AM at the Downtown Public Library at 615 Church Street. The program begins promptly at 10:00 AM. Academy day activities are open to all 8th-12th grade students and their families in the 5th Congressional District, which includes Nashville, Mt. Juliet, Lebanon, Pegram and Pleasant View.
